

IT HAS ARRIVED!

AMICA is proud to announce this long-awaited publication of The Reblitz-Bowers Encyclopedia of American Coin-Operated Pianos and Orchestrions and Related Instruments. The title says it all! Written by the most revered authors of mechanical music, this entirely new hardcover book in 8-1/2" X 11" contains over 900 pages packed with the history of every major American builder of coin pianos and orchestrions, plus pictures of every known model.

From cover to cover, in 63 chapters, it is packed with information not found in any other collector's book. This is not an up-date of the 1972 Encyclopedia of Automatic Musical Instruments, by Q. David Bowers. It is a "must have" for every enthusiast, with Foreword by Fred Dahlinger, Jr., layout by Terry Smythe, and the help of hundreds of other collectors.

US Dollars (USD) cost including shipping and handling to USA or Canada:

- $85 to AMICA members in the USA
- $100 for non-members in the USA
- $90 to AMICA members in Canada
- $105 for non-members in Canada
- For other mailing destinations, contact distribution manager Michael Walter at mikew\_14086@yahoo.com or (716) 656-9583

ORDERING INSTRUCTIONS

1. Credit card or PayPal: On-line using the AMICA website at www.amica.org. Credit card is through PayPal.
2. Check: Use the order form included in this publication or also available on the AMICA website.
3. Questions? Multiple book orders? Outside the US? Contact distribution manager (and AMICA Vice President) Michael Walter at: mikew\_14086@yahoo.com or (716) 656-9583.

